Figure. 3.5. The error in the normal derivative for a single inversion of the boundary integral equation, related to the number of nodes on each surface.